This mid-level course will walk you through the next steps of lighting design. The class will cover terminology for complete understanding, object reflectance and its importance, comprehend the photometric data provided by lighting manufacturers, as well as lighting calculations that include aging in place adjustments. We will work through some lighting scenarios to help you create lighting plans for you and your installers.

The Artistic Kitchen

Instructor: Richard Landon, CMKBD, NWSID
Date: Monday, January 8, 2018 Time: 10:30-12:30 p.m. EST
Location: Rosen Centre Hotel, Orlando, FL – Salons 7 & 8
CEUs/Hours: .2 NKBA CEUs & 2 NKBA Education Hours;
NAHB 2.00 CE Hours; 2.0 NARI CEUs.

The Artistic Kitchen will explore an emerging trend in kitchen design—the kitchen as a living room—and its implication to us, as designers. The course will open your imagination to how this affects the look, the function, and the feel of kitchens, as they either become art pieces themselves or display art within their “room.” We will demonstrate the 4 major building blocks present in all art and all design and apply these “ingredients” to representative kitchens.

Beyond Design: Establishing Monetary Value for Creative Skills

Instructor: Judith A. Neary, CMKBD & Corey Klassen, CMKBD, Assoc. IIDA
Date: Monday, January 8, 2018 Time: 3:30-5:30 p.m. EST
Location: Rosen Centre Hotel, Orlando, FL – Salons 7 & 8
CEUs/Hours: .2 NKBA CEUs & 2 NKBA Education Hours;
NAHB 2.00 CE Hours; 2.0 NARI CEUs.

In today's market, designers have less control over projects; homeowners are using digital inspiration to create their own look books, do-it-yourself layout software, and purchasing products online. You may be struggling with aligning your traditional business model to this changing cultural shift. You'll learn to refine your menu of services, identify professional development opportunities and expand your business.
